The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February 1941:—

L.A. BILL, No. 8 OF 1941.

A Bill to amend the Prisoners (Amendment) Act, 1934.

EXPLANATION. It is explained further to amend the Prisoners Act, 1934, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Prisoners (Amendment) Act, 1941.
2. For clause (1) of subsection (1) of section 33 of the Prisoners Act, 1934, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—
“(1) being the holder of a licence issued under section 4 or a person for the time being placed by the holder of such licence in custody if it is shown at any place where prisoners are being kept that it is shown to be in the interest of the public or the maintenance of such licence to suffer any modification of such licence to be exercised, or.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under clause (1) of subsection (1) of section 33 of the Prisoners Act, 1934, only the holder of a licence under the Act is liable for punishment for a breach of a condition of the licence held by him. The issue of a licence is not liable for any punishment under the Act if he intends a breach of the conditions of the licence. In actual practice, the licensee issues the Act and issues and by the issue of a licence and then supplies agents and places them in charge of his own premises. Cases have occurred in which breaches of conditions of licences have been committed by these agents, but no proceedings have been taken against such agents have been commenced in connection with the licence as the agents are not holders of licences under the Act. It is not always possible to prevent agents from breaching the conditions of licences as the agents are not holders of licences under the Act. It is therefore proposed to amend the Act so that the holder of a licence shall be liable for punishment for breach of conditions of licence which they commit or the person to whom the licence is issued is liable for breach of conditions of licence which they commit.

Now Enacted,
The 10th February 1941.

A. RAMANATHAN MUDALIAR,

Mr. RAU
Secretary to the Government of India.

(Regulated by order of the Executive Council)

P. APPA RAO,
Secretary to Government, Legal Department.
